497 Bust laureated of George III. to left. "Georgivs III. Dei Gratia." Rev., The same as last. Border milled; edge engrailed. Proof and of a beautiful light bronze color. 19½

This unique piece was purchased from the Clay collection. It combines, as will be seen by the above description, the head of the ruler of England with the reverse of a Washington cent, establishing a connecting link between a coin purely designed for circulation in America, and an English token or coin of the same period.
